Women's group plans "Unhappy Hour" to mark Equal Pay Day

[St. Petersburg, FL.-March 29, 2007] Business & Professional Women/St. Petersburg-Pinellas (BPW) will hold the group's annual "Unhappy Hour" on Tuesday, April 24, 2007, in recognition of Equal Pay Day. The public, is invited to attend the event at A Taste for Wine, 241 Central Avenue, in St. Petersburg, beginning at 5:30 p.m. There is no cost to attend, however donations will be accepted to benefit the Red Purse Society, a BPW/USA effort to focus on equalizing pay for men and women in equal jobs.

Equal Pay Day, which this year falls on April 24, marks the day the average woman in the United States finally earns the same amount of pay that her male counterpart earned in the previous year. According to the 2006 U.S. Census Bureau report, the average woman is paid 77 cents for every dollar a man is paid. Therefore, if a man were paid $50,000 to perform his job from January 1 through December 31, 2006, it will take a woman in the same position, on average, from January 1, 2006, through April 24, 2007, to earn the same amount.

BPW/St. Petersburg-Pinellas is a local organization of BPW/USA, a national alliance of individuals dedicated to improving the professional, personal, economic and educational outlook for working women. BPW's network across the country includes members of diverse ages, races, occupations and politics. BPW/USA pursues the issues that matter most to women who work including Economic Equity, Health Care and Civil Rights.

If you are unable to attend the April 24 event at A Taste for Wine but wish to support BPW/USA's initiatives to equalize pay, you may send a contribution to the Red Purse Society, described on the BPW/USA website, www.BPWUSA.org

BPW/St. Petersburg-Pinellas meets on the first and third Thursdays of each month at Gratzzi, 2nd Street at 2nd Avenue North, in St. Petersburg's Baywalk complex. For reservations or more information, e-mail RSVP@BPWStPetePinellas.org.
